

Country Study: The United Kingdom (U.K.)

This packet contains country-specific information, including links to country reports. These reports discuss the culture, people, history, and spiritual conditions of the land. Additional language-specific resources for discipleship are available on the CCD website. These include links to bilingual and native language resources, websites, books, workbooks, and videos. There are also links for Christian bookstores, organizations, ministry support, and language learning.

LANGUAGE LEARNING

British English is the primary language spoken in the United Kingdom. It differs from American English in accent, spelling (e.g., colour instead of color), and some vocabulary (e.g., lift instead of elevator). There are other languages spoken in immigrant communities.

If you would like to study a particular language or connect with a certain people group, please visit the CCD website for links to language learning software and language-specific discipleship resources: <https://www.crossculturaldiscipleship.com/resources>
