

Country Resources: The United States (U.S.)

This “Country Resources” packet contains country-specific information, such as links to country reports. These discuss the spiritual conditions of the land, the culture, the history, and requests for prayer. There are additional links for language learning and local Christian bookstores, organizations, and support.

A separate “English Resources” packet is also available on the CCD Website. It contains links to resources for discipleship, including books, workbooks, websites, and videos.
